

PREZEXPERT

effective business presentations

3.5 hrs
of training

Presenting like a PRO

Deliver your presentation content in an engaging manner that will influence your audience and inspire them to act.

Workshop objectives

Build your self-awareness and confidence to lead meetings and deliver slides in different contexts.

Discover the risks and challenges of delivering slides face-to-face, virtually, or in a hybrid meeting... and the techniques to overcome them.

Learn effective tactics to keep your audience engaged and to foster effective interactions.

Understand the attributes of your voice and discover new resources and tips that will help you to deliver with poise.

Format

3.5 hour virtual workshop

Group of 10 to 12 participants

65/35 split between theory and hands-on group exercise to virtually deliver a presentation

Computer required for each participant (having a camera is strongly recommended)

Other key topics covered

- Setting up your home office
- Preparing for your delivery
- Tips to overcome the fear of public speaking

Unanimous praise from workshop participants and executive sponsors

"My team and I were spending too much time reworking presentations several times... a lot of rework! The PrezExpert approach helps to focus the right work at the right level. We now produce more powerful presentations with fewer iterations."

Kristine Emmett
Human Resources VP
Bell Canada

"PrezExpert has trained my Global communications team and over 200 CAE employees on how to make impactful presentations. Their training sessions had a real impact on the ability of those trained to make better presentations while saving a lot of precious time."

Hélène V. Gagnon
VP, Public Affairs and Global Communications
CAE

"Excellent program which I would highly recommend to all leaders in our company."

"This workshop will definitely help me in terms of credibility and professionalism."

"In our world where it is sometimes hard to devote a full day to training, I felt this was a very good use of my time."
